

ACCESS TO BLED

Automobiles: Bled is situated in the northwestern part of Slovenia, 47km from the nearest Austrian and Italian borders. It can be accessed year round from the regional road Karavanke Tunnel–Ljubljana, exit Lesce.

Railway: The Lesce–Bled Railway Station, on the Oste railway line (Munich–Salzburg–Villach–Ljubljana–Belgrade–Istanbul–Athens), is only 4km from Bled. The other railway station, Bled–Jezero, is on the railway line Villach–Jesenice–Nova Gorica (2km from Bled centre).

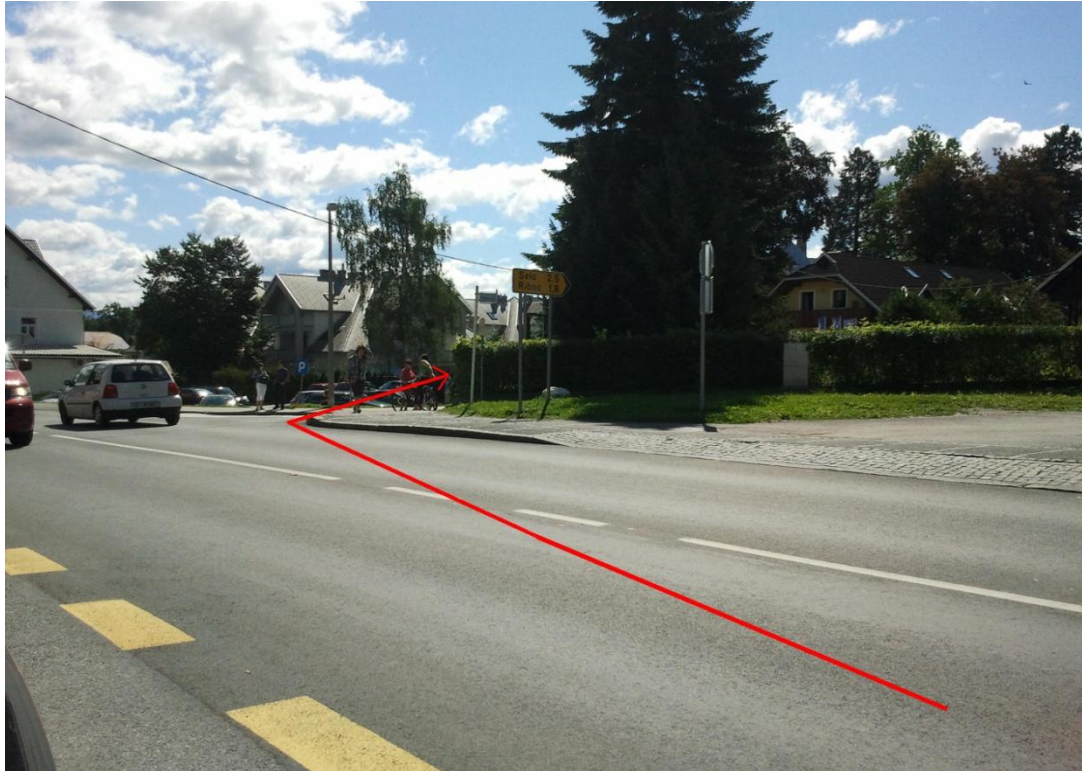

Bus: There are regular buses running from Bled to local destinations and all major Slovenian centers.

Airplane: International Ljubljana Jože Pučnik Airport, Brnik, is 36km away. The Lesce Sports Airfield is only 4km from Bled.

No vehicles allowed: There is a 5.5-kilometre walking route around Lake Bled. Also available are a number of walking and cycling routes around Bled and the surrounding areas. All routes are shown on the Bled Tourist Map, available from local tourist agencies and the Tourist Information Centre.

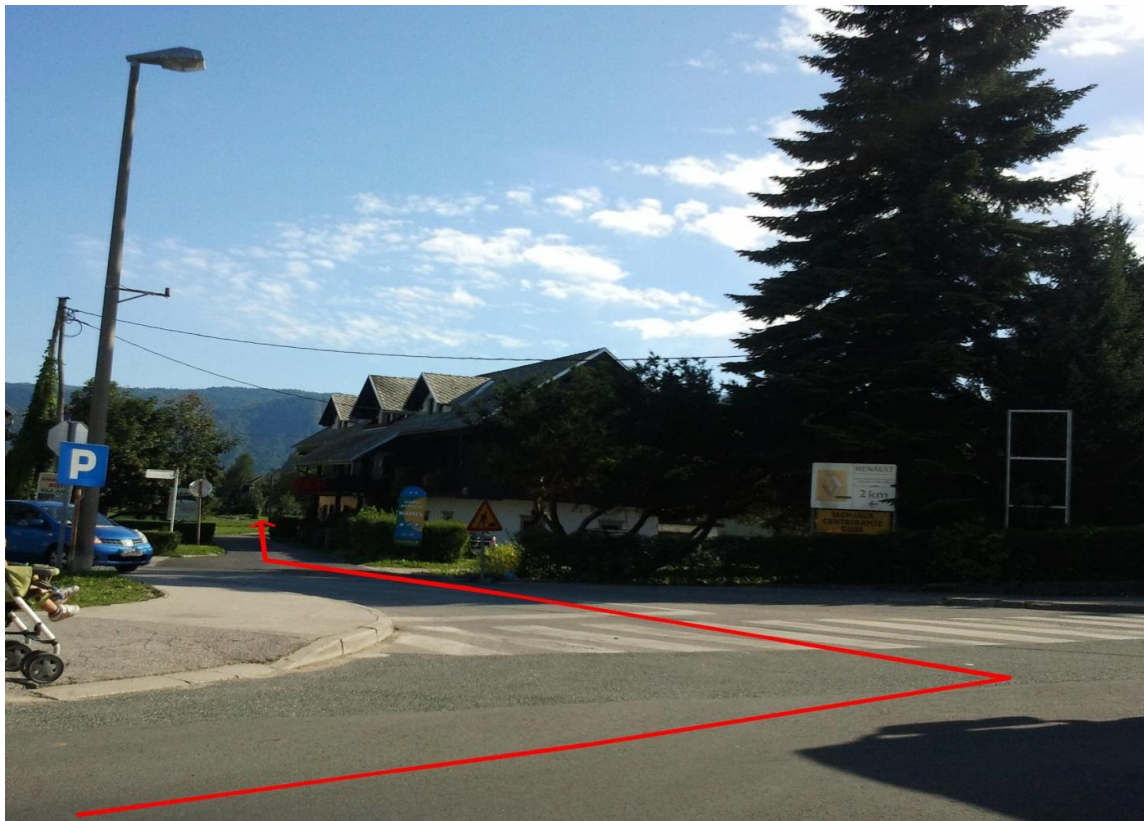

ACCESS TO HOUSE KLASIKA

By bus from direction Ljubljana, Kranj, Lesce – Bled: you need to get off the bus at first bus station in Bled (Union bus station), not the main (second) bus station. House Klasika is situated just 100 m away, on the other site of the street in direction Ribno. See the picture below.

By train from direction Ljubljana: you need to take the train to Lesce – Bled train station. When you arrive there you can take a bus and follow the procedure described above. If you will arrive on Bled – jezero train station, the best way is to take a taxi (2,5 km), because there is no bus station.

By car: When you arrive in Bled from direction Ljubljana, you pass both gas stations on main road and after the second one on the right site you turn left (direction Ribno) and then immediately right (small street). See picture bellow.

Slovenian railways – timetable: <http://www.slo-zeleznice.si/en/passengers>
Bus schedules: <http://www.ap-ljubljana.si/eng/>